Terry Walker, from Crime to Christ.

God saved me from destruction and changed my life forever 38 years ago. He said to me then, "One day at a time" and that's how I take it. God delivered me from heroin addiction and a life of crime. It was the start of my new life. As I grew and followed God's leading, I was able to help others who were deeply involved in crime, drugs and much more, and show them how God had taken, stood me on my feet, and he would do the same for them.

I'm blessed more than I ever thought possible, and now I'm about to enter a new chapter. God has directed me to expand my ministry to include New Zealand, a new adventure with challenges and rewards. It's very exciting and I invite you to take this journey with me, one of sharing God's immense love and power. My wife Suzy and I are on this journey together; "one day at a time".
